

What this summer may look like at Quest...

IF

THEN

If there is still a stay at home order in place..

Then Quest will be done virtually (half day)

If Quest is done virtually

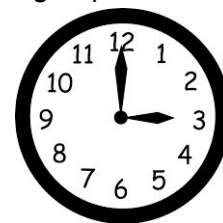

Then points will be given for minutes of physical activity done at home (in addition to home goal points)

If groups are limited to being less than 50 people

Then Quest will operate in two half day camps (one in the morning, one in the afternoon) to make group sizes smaller.

If Quest operates half-days

Then swimming and field trips will not take place

If large groups are allowed to meet

Then Quest will operate as usual in person

If Quest operates as usual

Then some restrictions may still exist, meaning activities such as swimming and field trips may be modified.

